P R E F A C E .

The Bishop's Transcripts in the Hereford Registry having recently been sorted and made available for reference, the entries for several years previous to those in the first Volume have been copied and inserted here.

Volume I. of this Register consists of seventy-two leaves of parchment, whereof thirty are assigned to Baptisms from 1708 to 1812, twenty-four to Burials from 1708 to 1812, and eighteen to Marriages from 1708 to 1754.

Volume II. contains the usual printed forms for Marriages from 1754 to 1812. The first entry is given in full, but the subsequent entries are curtailed.

The Registers previous to 1708 have disappeared for many years, they were not in existence in 1831. There are no charities connected with the parish.

The Rectory of Munsley was united to the Vicarage of Canon Frome by an order in Council dated Dec. 11th, 1854, and upon the death of William Domville in 1859 the Rev. John Hopton, Vicar of Canon Frome, became Rector of Munsley without induction until his death in 1871.

By a great error of judgment the old silver chalice and paten, presented to the parish by John Elton, of Paunceford Court, in the seventeenth century, was sold in 1869 for £6 18s. 5d., and an electro-plated set bought for £7 2s. 6d.

The Church was restored in 1861 when an old stone—now under the Communion table—was found with some letters on it. Some people say it is an old Saxon notice tablet. There is also a curious Parish Chest cut out of one solid block of oak.

The present Rectory and glebe was exchanged and enlarged by the Rev. John Hopton about 1853.

A curious ancient yew tree is still growing in the Churchyard.

The mound on which the Lower Court stands is probably the site of the old Manor House. Part of the moat still exists.

The commuted value of the tithe is £219 14s. 9d. Hop tithe £6 13s. 6d., together with the Rectory House and twenty-three acres of glebe.

A curious old stone on chancel floor nearly illegible :—

Here lieth the Body of Benjamin Mason of Pixley Court, Esq^{re}, who departed this life the 29th day of June A.D. 1665.

Why doe his friends . . .
 Funrall Solemn . . .
 sighs and grones . . .
 Those dropping ey . . .
 such spirits as . . .
 can Bee but a . . .
 to immortality: some . . .
 fection have and . . .
 some, more perchance . . .
 Here all met in one
 Now has not vaine honor
 Light renowne but what is Better an immortal crown
 O doe not wake him
 But let him rest! in Those sweet joyes with which His soules possest.

A Digest of the Parish Registers

WITHIN THE DIOCESE OF WORCESTER,

Issued by the Committee of Parish Registers,

By Authority of the WORCESTER DIOCESAN CONFERENCE.

This Digest has been prepared under the direction of a Committee appointed at the Diocesan Conference, held at Birmingham, in 1896, and has been completed from the original Returns supplied by the Incumbents of the Parishes within the Diocese. The dates when each Volume of Registers commence and end, the number of leaves, material on which they are written, and the size and general condition, are all clearly stated under each parish.

Added to all this useful information, is a table showing for what years in every parish the Bishops Transcripts, previous to 1700, are now in existence in Edgar Tower, Worcester.

As only a limited number of copies has been printed, early application is necessary to secure a copy.

A Supplement to How to Write the History of a Family,

By W. P. W. PHILLIMORE, M.A., B.C.L.

The First and Second Editions have been long since quite exhausted. Much additional information of practical value has been gathered together since the handbook was issued, and this has been put together in the form of a separate supplement, so that it may be available for the possessors of each edition. The supplement matches the original work.

It contains amongst other matter a Chapter for Beginners, Chapters on Scotch and Irish Genealogy and Records, which have been revised by Lyon King of Arms, Ulster King of Arms, and the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, Ireland, and revised Lists of Probate Registries (England, Scotland, and Ireland) and Marriage Licenses, etc.
